Why not Join Us!

Why should you join Homemakers? Because, you need to do something good for yourself, your family and your community! A homemaker's club is a terrific place to meet people and make new friends, learn new skills and ways to make your life easier and less stressful. It's a great place to share your individual skills and talents, build your confidence and develop leadership skills.

Homemaker clubs are a part of the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service. Every state and almost every county in the United States has an Extension Service. The Extension Homemakers Organization provides informal education, leadership activities and community development nationwide.

Through a variety of programs, Homemakers are able to contribute more effectively to the well being of their family, community, and themselves.

We provide information in person, by phone, by mail, at meetings, in newspapers, online and social media.

Why not join us? If your time is limited, become a Mailbox Member.

Send the completed form and your $8.00 check made payable to "Madison County Extension Homemakers" P.O. Box 270, Richmond, KY 40476-0270.

Come Join Us!

Extension Homemakers is...

an informal education program designed to help gain new knowledge and skills to improve the quality of life for ourselves and for our families. Extension Homemakers are your friends, relatives and neighbors working together for our community, our country, our nation and our world.

Traditional and specialty clubs meet monthly in homes, churches, restaurants, or community centers in the day or evening, Monday through Friday. Local clubs have as few as 6 members, or as many as 35. Meetings are informal with plenty of time for demonstrations, discussion, idea sharing, and show-and-tell.

A Homemakers Board coordinates activities on the county and area levels that are informative and fun.

Extension Homemakers is for Everyone!
